FROM

B. PUTTAIYA, ESQ., B.A.,
Compiler, Mysore Gazette,
Bangalore.

R. Ranga Rao, Esq., B.A., B.L.,
General Secretary to the Government of
His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore,
BANGALORE.

RR 12/6

Sir,

With reference to your No: G. 12983/P.&.S. of the 8th instant, I have the honour to state that only Bills and Regulations are set up in book size of Royal 8vo width but made up into pages of Foolscap length and published in the Gazette and that after the issue of the Gazette, only Regulations but not bills are made up into pages of smaller length (Royal 8vo) and printed and bound in book form with the price printed on the cover and sent to the Book Depot for sale to the public. Rules issued under Regulations and all other legislative matter appearing in Part III which have not the force of law are set up in pages of foolscap length and also the same width and published in the gazette but they are not printed in book form and supplied to the Depot for sale.

As the Legislative matter appearing in Part III of the Gazette of 12th May 1927 is a draft of an amendment to Rules under the Mysore Securities Regulation, it has not been set up in book form (Royal 8vo) but only in foolscap size both as regards length and width of the page.

In short, all matter that becomes law and has the force of law is issued in book form now. I believe this is quite sufficient for all practical purposes.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

PROCEEDINGS OF THE GOVERNMENT OF
